Gentlemen:

I see your name and address in a Money Manual, say that you bought rare coins. I have decided to write to you about a half dollar which I have. This half dollar is old. The date is 1800 I think I can't for certain tell what the last figure of the date is but can see the 180 plainly on the same side of the date is is the 1843 quarter dol. worth any more than face value & if so how much?

Notice

Now and to the left is the letter R, The letter R is shown plainly. On the other side of the half dollar the eagle is shown plainly UNITED STATES OF AMERICA HALF DOL. is also shown very plainly. If you could use this coin please write me by Return mail for which I enclose a stamp. Please send me some circulars telling what you pay for coins Please write me by return mail and tell me what you give for this Half dollar

Yours truly

Jno. B. Nelson
